

9.2_Intro

record	After the lecture, turn the notes into one- or two-word questions or 'cues' which will help you remember the key information.
reduce	Say the questions and answers aloud.
recite	Look again at the key words and the summary (and do this regularly).
reflect	Take notes during the lecture.
review	Decide on the best way to summarize the key information from the lecture.